

Service Delays Due to Weather Emergencies

If you are placing a transcript order or verifying a degree, please be aware that institutions impacted by severe weather during this year's hurricane season may experience delays processing transcript requests and responding to DegreeVerify requests that require research in collaboration with impacted institutions.

The Clearinghouse is actively communicating with impacted institutions and will update you as the situation evolves.

You can also check the school's website for closure information.

National Student
Clearinghouse®